

Questions for Conversations

*The purposes of a person's heart
are deep waters,
but one who has insight
draws them out.*
Proverbs 20:5 NIV

Who would you consider your closest friend? What makes them so?

What one thing would make your daily work more satisfying?

What tends to discourage you most in life? Why do you think that is?

What is one of the scariest risks you've ever taken? Why did you do it?

Beach or mountains? Why?

What difficult experience has God used most powerfully to change you?

What is one time when God clearly spoke to you? How did it change you?

What do you fear the most about growing old?

Who is or was the hardest person to forgive in your life?

Who was your favorite grandparent and why?

Would you rather live to be 100 or be a millionaire for a year? Why?

What super-power would you like for a day? Why?

What were your earliest thoughts about God?

What person has had the greatest influence on your faith?

What is God currently teaching you about?

What fear would you like to have taken away?

Which two ancestors would you invite to dinner? Why?

What are you most proud of accomplishing in your life?

What did your parents do best when raising you?

If you wrote your autobiography, what would the title be?